

Journey into the Mystery #9: Portals to Resonance

with Carole Burstein, PhD & Robert Litman, CBA

July 19 - 23, 2018
Maui, Hawaii

“Out beyond ideas of wrong-doing and right-doing, there is a field.
I’ll meet you there.” - Rumi

INQUIRY: What guides us in our relationships, our decision making, our dance with emotions, judgments, time management, our motivations for how to meet whatever life brings us? How can we participate with the Breath that Breathes us to best serve our life purpose and its essential frequency?

Whether through suffering from our own archaic survival skills, ancestral entanglements, or other factors, this incarnation invites us to join with Divine Love to create a more heavenly earthwalk for ourselves and those whose paths we cross. Using Journey into the Mystery skills we can meet the aspects of ourselves still wed to the insidious conditioning of “good/bad/right/wrong/success/failure/blame/shame/guilt/entitlements” and proving that we in fact are worthwhile and lovable. This encoding, reinforced by family, culture and history, carries both our wounding and serves as our labyrinth to freedom.

In this next Journey into the Mystery adventure, we enter through the portals of “daily stuff” into the Field of Resonance. Here, we discover the flow that beckons us to experience Life’s daily magic and miracles.

Through engaging resonance, we move through a portal of reactivity to intolerable wounds, often unconscious, to a life infused with self-truth, Divine Presence and Love and joy.

Come journey with us through the portal of paradigm shifting and hone your skills of living from Resonance and Love. *
